From the Desk of Ms. Morri

Greetings!

Thank you to the families who helped provide the meal for our teachers on Tuesday night's conferences. It was greatly appreciated. We have conferences again this evening.

This Sunday is our last day to sell raffle tickets. ALL TICKETS ARE DUE IN THE OFFICE ON MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25TH. This is our big fundraiser for the year. Our goal is $40,000. If your tickets go unsold $125 will be charged to your TADS account. Right now we are at $20,500. Please keep selling those tickets!

I have been in classrooms the past couple of weeks doing my teacher observations. I love being in the classroom and seeing the learning taking place. It is amazing to see the variety of activities that take place in our school daily; 4th graders were getting introduced to Coding, 1st graders led their morning meeting/calendar time using technology, teachers working with small groups and students participating in hands on activities. Great things are happening in our classrooms!

Have a wonderful rest of your week.

God bless,

Ms. Morri

Mardi Gras Silent Auction goes LIVE this weekend!

Mardi Silent Auction goes live this Saturday, February 23rd. If you need something to do while it's snowing outside take a moment to peruse all the amazing items we have to offer. You can PREVIEW AND PREBID on the web using BidPal. Relax and start bidding-set your maximum bids. Max bids allow you to set the highest amount you would bid for an item. Then sit back and let the program take care of the bidding for you up to your chosen max amount. If bidding on your item ends for less than your maximum amount, that's all you pay!

Visit the following link at One Cause for a great tutorial to help you prepare for the fun of bidding. Or go to the BidPal site Mardi Gras Bidding to get started. You have to attend the event to bid on Hurricane and Live Auction Items, but the children's art projects are in the silent auction. Tickets are still available for a few days at www.ststephenchurch.org under the online giving tab under Mardi Gras, in the Parish Office, or after masses this weekend. Tickets are $60 per person.
